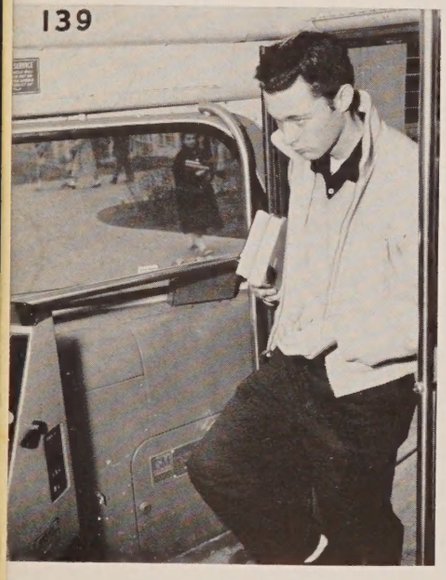
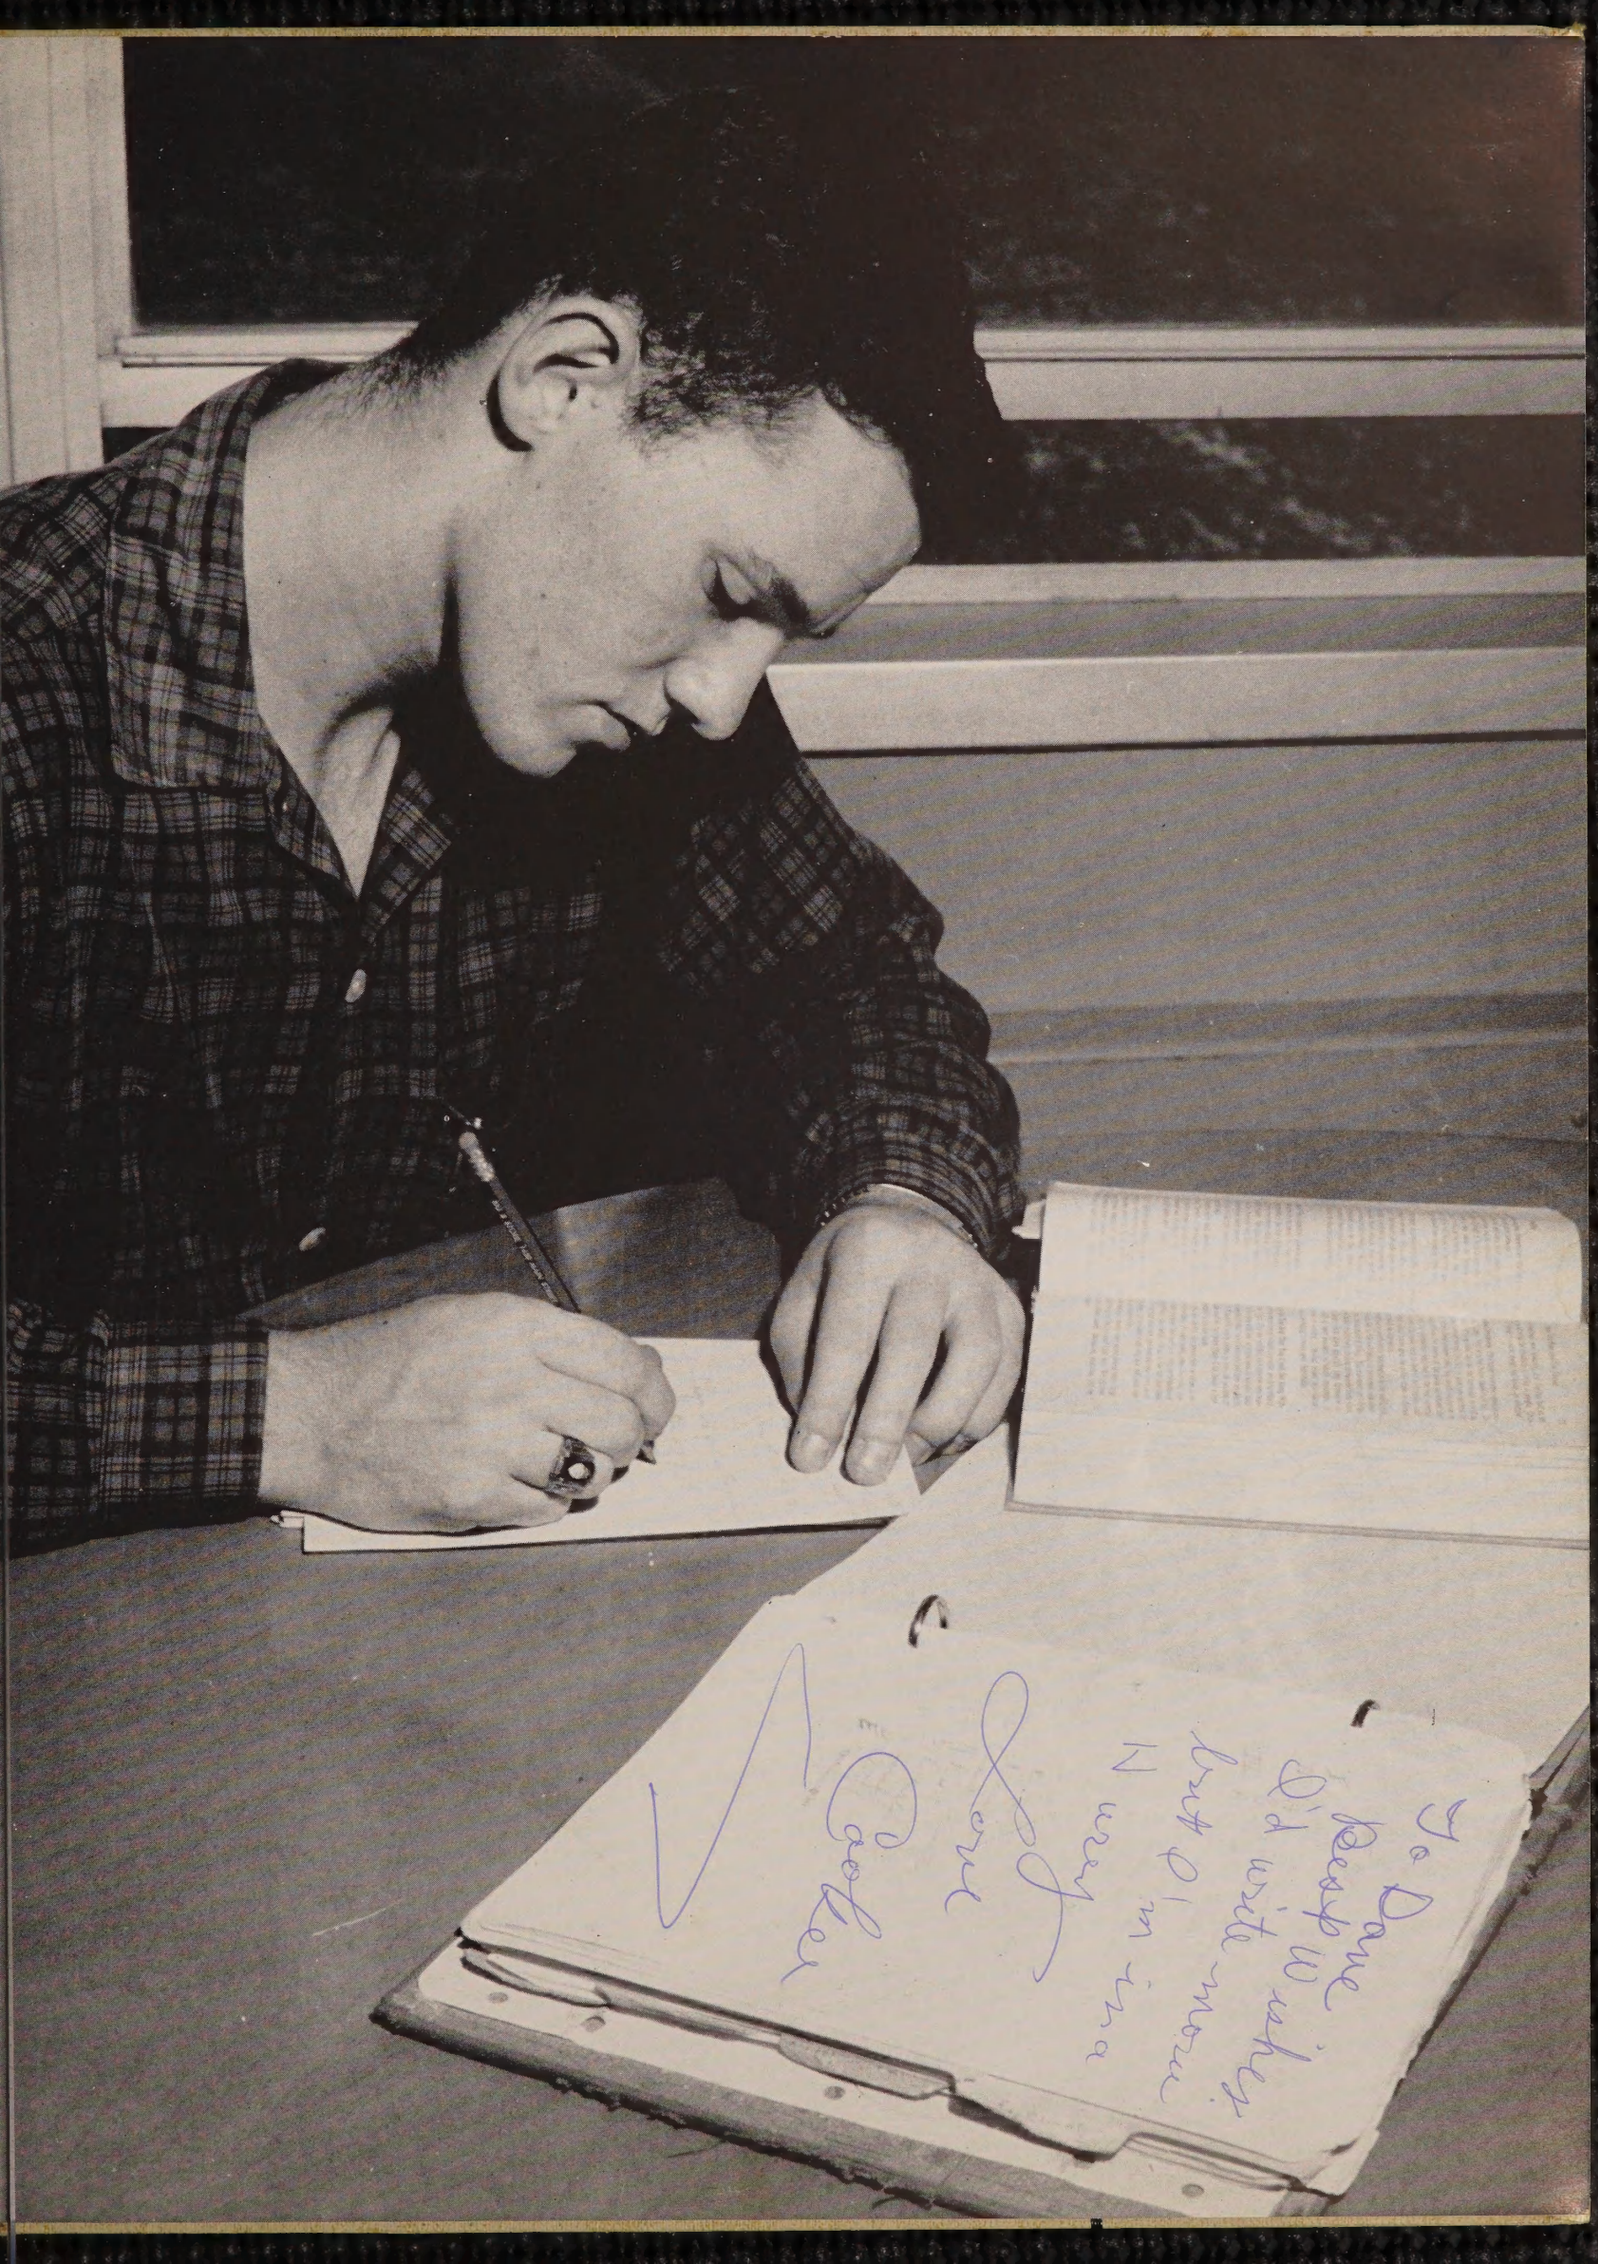
at Woodward



A young school rich in the fine traditions of the past—this is Woodward. Here, in well-equipped modern surroundings, are all the opportunities for a liberal education. To all who are willing to learn, Woodward offers training in many fields and various skills. Our academic life is varied and complex, and each day is filled with activity. Transportation is an increasing problem and our parking lot is always filled with cars, for our students come from many different communities. The hours of classroom work and study periods are our most important activities, but there are moments of relaxation too. Candy machines do their bit to add pleasure to the day's work, and the student store is a busy place at almost any time of day. Woodward was planned and equipped to give its students the best in education, but comfort and relaxation were not forgotten.

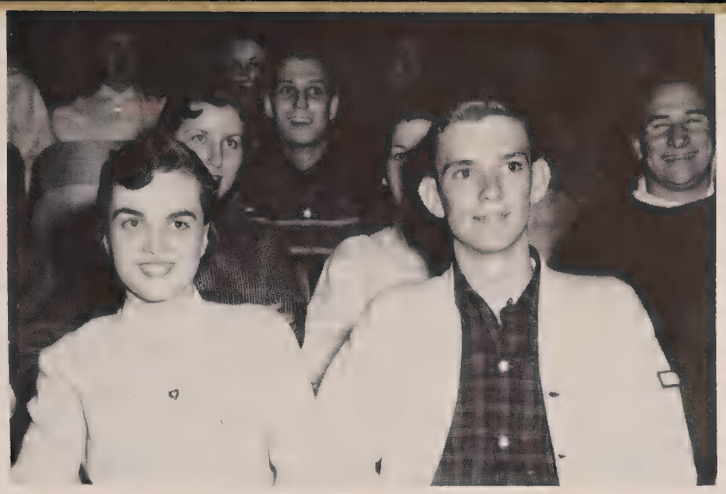


To Dave
Keep Writing
But Don't worry
Sam Cooke

Counseling is an important part of modern school training. Our faculty counsellors are always ready to advise and help students with their problems, whether they are the adjustments freshmen must make in their new surroundings, or the more serious problems involving the choice of an occupation or college. Preparing students for responsible citizenship and equipping them with high moral standards is Woodward's goal.

Supplementing the opportunities to be found in our classrooms is Woodward's library. Freshmen are taught how to make full use of reference material, and all students are encouraged to use the many books at their disposal. Many different skills are developed at Woodward. The Home Economics department offers girls training in various phases of homemaking, which are taught in cooking and sewing rooms equipped with the most up-to-date machines and appliances. Boys may develop mechanical and manual skill in laboratory or machine shop. Woodward recognizes the need for training students to take their place in the industrial and mechanical life of our country.

Education is composed of many things. We learn from working and playing with each other, and social acitvities are an important part of school life. Woodward's many clubs provide an outlet for self-expression. They also help students to improve themselves socially and intellectually while they are having fun. Dances are the high lights of many school and club activities—there is always something for everyone to enjoy. The friendships we form during our school years will provide the pleasant memories of future years.



The Woodward school spirit, which has always been so strong in the past, has grown and developed in our new surroundings. This is particularly true in regard to our athletic program. We are proud of our school teams and we support them loyally. This year our basketball team tied for first place in the Public High School League, and we take great pride in their achievement. The competition which sports provide is a healthy thing, and all students are encouraged to participate. Physical fitness and good sportsmanship are two important goals in a well-rounded school program such as we have at Woodward.

Woodward Treasures

this is his life at Woodward

As a student, Mr. Moeller was a member of a championship basketball team.

Preparing students to become good citizens in the world is one of the many responsibilities of Woodward's principal, Mr. Winton L. Moeller. To meet this challenge, Mr. Moeller has in his own background experiences and contributions to education which ably equip him for the job.

Mr. Moeller graduated from Woodward in 1922 and began his college education, which took a period of sixteen years. His first college training was at Wittenberg College. After graduating from Wittenberg, he continued his studies at the University of Indiana and the University of Cincinnati, where in 1943 he received his masters degree in the field of school administration.

After completing a one year teaching job at Bucyrus, Ohio, Mr. Moeller returned to Woodward where he continued his coaching career. From 1940 to 1945 he was appointed Cincinnati Director of Athletics.

Later, he was promoted to the position of principal at Hartwell High School and in 1950 he became principal of Old Woodward. Three years later, he came to New Woodward to assume position of principal, which he now holds.

Mr. Moeller's wife, who is also a graduate of Woodward, and his daughter, Mrs. Bruce Thomas, also contribute time and energy to Woodward with their help in the Woodward "Showcase."

On this 125 Anniversary of Woodward High School's existence, we pay tribute to our principal whose concern and consideration are always for his students.

Mr. Moeller was coach of the 1929 Woodward basketball team which won the Enquirer Trophy for basketball championship.

BASKET BALL TEAM, Woodward High School, Cincinnati, champions of 1929, gain permanent possession of the beautiful silver Cincinnati Enquirer Trophy, which was offered to the high school team first winning it three seasons. The trophy and the winning team are shown in the picture.

THE SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Arthur I. Vigard

Mr. Arthur Vigard, assistant principal of the senior high school, has a variety of responsibilities. In addition to aiding in the general administration of the school, including attendance, admissions, withdrawals and discipline, he has the responsibility for supervision of all classes in the fields of science, social studies and business. He also has charge of the ordering and distribution of all textbooks, the operation of the parking lot, and the lunchroom. He serves on a number of committees, including the chairmanship of the awards committee.

This is Mr. Vigard's first year at Woodward High School.

Dr. J. Howard Owen

Dr. Owen's main concern is primarily with the students of the lower grades. His responsibilities include the Student Council and the student book store, for which he is a sponsor. In the evening, one is always able to find Dr. Owen acting as principal of evening school.

Miss Zerita Schwartz

Miss Margaret Hall

Good luck always
M. O. Hall

THE COUNSELORS

Solving the needs and the problems of the students is a big responsibility, but Woodward's counselors have handled the work efficiently. Doing a wonderful job for the ninth and twelfth grades is Miss Zerita Schwartz. Miss Margaret Hall copes with the overwhelming problems of the eighth and eleventh grades. Mr. John McConnell counsels the seventh and tenth grades.

Mr. John McConnell

THE ART DEPARTMENT

Art plays an important role in our schools today. No longer is it a course for a select talented few, but a vital program open to all. Many students at Woodward take advantage of the broad opportunities provided by the Art Department to prepare for a future profession, to better understand the uses of art in our daily living, and to learn certain fundamentals that will provide them with a future hobby. Many extra-curricular activities are sponsored by the Art Department in organizations such as The Art League, The Senior Art Club, and the Junior Art Club.

As you come through the east wing you can see our future business workers and leaders in action. From room 109 you hear a constant murmur of typewriters putting forth the many letters and projects needed to familiarize these newcomers with the business world.

Around room 108 you will see what seems to be, at first glance, weird symbols, curves, straight lines, circles and loops-to the uninitiated, meaningless; the business student knows that each, seperately and combined, takes on new meanings.

In room 107 many actions are going on simultaneously-some students are making rapid calculations by electrical and hand operated machines, manual and automatic for today's businesses; others are reproducing typewritten material and drawings by the mimeograph and duplicator. Still others are transcribing dictation by means of mechanical transcription.

In room 103 you can see checks, vouchers, check registers, purchase journals, sales journals, ledgers, general journals—all as though a regular bookeeping department of a business office were present. These business students learn that even a penny is important, if misplaced or lost!

Yes, today's business students are tomorrow's business leaders!

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

From Beowulf to Mr. Roberts; from the simple noun to the noun clause: from predestination in Thomas Hardy to preposition in Living Language 12: from the comma to the period: these are just a few of the objectives set for the Woodwardite in the English department. Though the process of development of power over his language sometimes eludes the student, the staff of the department, under the leadership of Miss Curry, constantly strives to unfold the seeming endless sources of knowledge. Many a worn-out pen falls by the wayside between grades 7 and 12, having exhausted itself with such topics as "My Most Unforgettable Moment", but a more expressive student emerges as the end result.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The study of foreign languages performs a vital function in Woodward's curriculum. French. German. Latin and Spanish are the courses offered.

The foreign language department aims first of all to help the student to acquire an accurate working knowledge of the language. Language students also learn to understand the culture, customs and ways of living of people whose language they are studying. Further, it is impossible to study foreign languages without gaining a better understanding of one's own. These aims go beyond the assigned classroom activities because each of the lanuage groups maintains an active language club whose programs because of student interest carry the same aims into Woodward's social life.

The home economics department teaches and aids young girls in the tasks they will use later in their own homes. Many students find home economics interesting enough to consider it as a profession after graduation.

These students are taught how to prepare well-balanced meals, make their own clothes, use their budget money wisely, and how to care for their own homes.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The industrial arts program of Woodward High School is a phase of general education which offers to the student the opportunity to acquire manipulative experiences with tools, materials, and processes as they are related to industry. Courses elected in wood, mechanical drawing, electricity, graphic arts, and metal attempt to develop an appreciation for good craftsman, a better consumer knowledge, avocation interest, better social attitudes because of the nature of the courses, creative thinking, artistic design in project fabrication, some skills in the industrial processes, a better understanding of occupations in relation to the selection of a vocation. The industrial arts program of Woodward High School is open to both boys and girls from grades seven to twelve.

LIBRARY

Woodward's libraries serve the school by supplying materials for class work, for club groups and for pleasure reading. The 20,000 books and 120 periodicals cover subject matter in every field and inspire reading for personal development as well as school use.

In charge of filing, shelving and writing overdue notices are the student library assistants. Under the capable direction and guidance of Mrs. Anna Borchin and Miss Ruth Bullock, and the efficient help of Mrs. Helen Jay, these students gain interest in the field of librarianship and are encouraged to follow it as a very worthwhile career.

MATHEMATICS

Woodward High School's mathematics department trains both college bound students and those students who plan to terminate their education at the high school level. It is the aim of the department to teach not only basic principles but also higher mathematics to interested and capable students. General mathematics courses review the fundamentals and preview higher mathematics. Algebra and plane geometry acquaint the formula, equations, graphs and develop logical thinking. Math III and IV are offered to students who wish to gain a more technical knowledge of the subject. Consumer and business math are designed for those students who will not attend college, but will use the knowledge gained in personal endeavors.

MUSIC

Music, like life itself, is a gift from above. It is to be loved for its beauty, sought for its charm, lived with for its delightful companionship, and served because it inspires devotion. But Music, like all our gifts, is part of the library of our heritage.It is for us to open the book and develop it by instruction and cultivation.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The physical education program of Woodward High School has the aims that are harmonious with the basic aims of all education. It conforms to the standards of educational and social ideals. Our program differs from other areas of education not in its aims, but in the specific objectives that it emphasizes and in the kind of activity that predominates in the program. The main purpose of our program is to help each child develop all his inborn abilities—physical, intellectual, emotional—to the fullest extent along lines that are appropriate to his present and future needs. We feel that our program is as vital to the weak as to the strong and thus encourage all to take an active part in the program.

SCIENCE

In an age of startling scientific discoveries and developments it is important that the schools provide a basic and interesting background for future adults. Woodward High School's science department offers a varied curriculum which answers the needs of its students. Science students have participated in both national and local science fairs and contests. This year the department sponsored the first Woodward Science Fair which was a great success. This fair presented 300 exhibits produced by students. Representatives of senior high classes have visited various plants and laboratories, and five hundred students attended the Cincinnati Medical Association Exhibit.

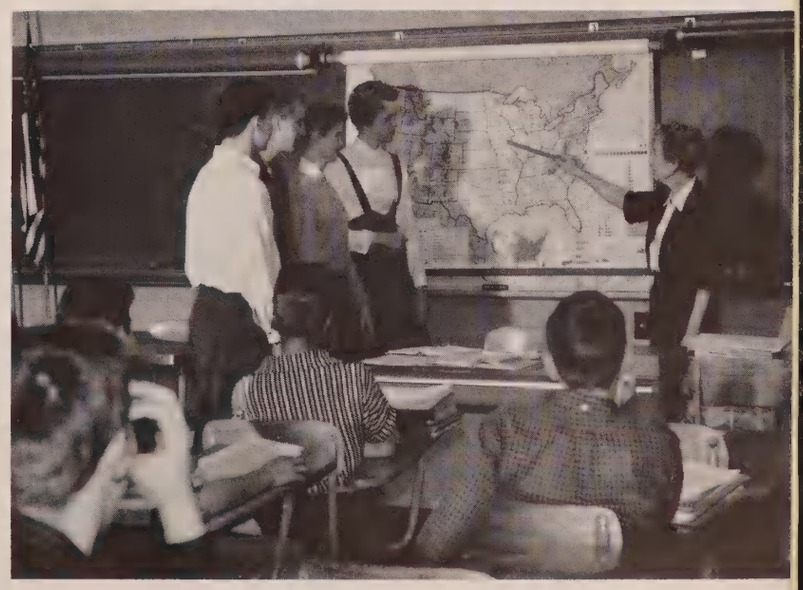
SOCIAL STUDIES

Although the curriculum of the social studies includes a variety of separate courses from the seventh grade through the twelfth grade, a unity of purpose underlies the various branches—the geography, civics, history, economics, and sociology. This purpose is the development of a high quality of citizenship.

The very nature of the social studies demands that they make an important contribution to the training of informed, responsible citizens living in an age when the world, in a sense, is our community.



OFFICE STAFF

The manifold duties of the office are capably handled by Mrs. Mildred Stickney, secretary to the principal; Mrs. May Skilken, financial secretary; Mrs. Hazel Schlensker, secretary to the assistant principals; Miss Jean Forrester, secretary to the counselors; Mrs. Bernice Overmyer, P.B.X. operator; and Mrs. Helen Jay whose duties are divided between the library and main office.

MAINTENANCE STAFF

Without these very important key members of the engineering and custodial staff it would be impossible for Woodward to function smoothly. Mr. Nelson Swearingen heads up the engineering staff and Mr. Frank Skuse is head custodian.

Mr. Nelson Swearingen and Mr. Frank Skuse

FACULTY

In a school of our size, and with the limitations of our staff, we are always bound to omit someone from their proper place. This page is an attempt to correct our shortcomings. Even so, we have still not pictured Miss Ruth Schafstall, school dietician. For names and faces still lost, we apologize.

WOODWARD'S 125th ANNIVERSARY

On this our one hundred twenty-fifth anniversary, we look with pride upon our past, and with confidence toward our future. We appreciate the fine traditions which have been handed down to us from earlier generations of Woodward graduates. The story of the founding of Woodward High School is familiar to all of us. Though there is little outward resemblance between the structure of the first school and the complex modern high school of today, yet through the years the school spirit has remained strong in spite of many changes that have taken place in Woodward's character.

The loyalty of Woodward alumni has been an inspiration to many generations of students, and the high academic standards which characterized our school from its earliest days have set a pattern for us to follow. The list of distinquished citizens who have graduated from Woodward is an impressive one. We are proud of these alumni, and it is our hope that our present student body will follow in their footsteps so that our future will be as illustrous as our past.

School Council has been rolling for three years and is steadily gaining momentum. The past year has been a rewarding one. Under the leadership of two fine groups of officers and committee heads, many worthwhile projects have been completed. The student body and faculty wisely passed an amendment to the constitution placing elections of officers in April and of representatives in September. This gives Council a maximum amount of time for efficient operation.

Standing committees have been well staffed, and under alert teacher sponsors have worked hard and enthusiastically. A seating arrangement by homerooms for assemblies has been tried with excellent cooperation from the student body. The whole school worked together in the spirit of Citizenship Week and of Clean-Up Week. All established clubs and organizations have been chartered during the year, and Council is always striving to promote new and better activities at Woodward. Six social events have been sponsored by Council with other organizations helping and participating. These are only a few of the operations carried on by your representative student body.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Executive Council meetings are usually lively and informal discussions of the reports of the committee chairman who with the three officers of Council make up the Executive Council. These chairman consist of the nine senior high and five junior high heads of standing committees. The purpose of this Council group is to initiate and recommend legislation to School Council and to carry out any functions ordered by School Council.

The meetings take place two days preceding the School Council meetings so the agenda can be prepared by the Executive Council.

Serving with these committee chairman are President, Dick Hataway; First Vice President, Joanie Wasserman; and Second Vice President, Sid Lieberman and their advisors Mrs. Dorothy Schroeter, Mr. Howard Owen, and Mr. William Spreen.

The job of putting your WOODWARD TREASURES together starts the day school opens and continues without letup until the final copy is distributed.

The task of putting a yearbook together may seem to be a fairly simple one, consisting only of taking picture, typing out identifications, and collecting write-ups. But there is always, among other things, the problem of re-scheduling pictures and meeting the "always lurking in the distance" deadline. While trying to meet this deadline the frequent trips to get pizza, the humorous outbursts from our sponsors, Miss Carolyn Hathaway and Mr. William Strunk, and the final joy of a completed annual help relieve the tension.

BULLDOG BARKS

TERRIE JONES
Editor-in-Chief

Friday mornings would be dull indeed without Woodward's watchful eye and ear, the Bulldog Barks. Its pages feature senior personality parades, sports news, and even real "journalistic scoops." This newspaper is a product of teamwork, confusion, and chaos. Almost miraculously, the staff presents a completely different four pages every week. Before its distribution, however, there have been many students involved in its production.

Mr. Charles Warman and Mr. Sunnenberg are the faculty advisors, and are always ready to add their helpful suggestions. Such fine support from the faculty and the student body enabled the Bulldog Barks to publish two special eight-page editions this year, one celebrating Woodward's 125th Anniversary, and the other for the Royal Shuffle. The newspaper's annual Valentine dance, the Royal Shuffle was the biggest dance Woodward has ever had, much to the delight of the staff.

Terrie Jones, as editor-in-chief, supervises the newspaper's copy and activities, and in general, ties up all the loose ends. Joni Freiden, who was promoted in March to managing editor, organizes the make-up and copy for the feature pages. Other editors are Nancy Crawford, news; Judy Masur, editorials; Jan Breeden and Barb Simone, features; and Keith Dimond and Howie Newstate, sports.

Editors are selected on the basis of mastery of English fundamentals, interest, and journalistic training. All editors serve a probational apprentice term before their selection is final. Membership in Quill and Scroll, national journalism honor society, is awarded to staff member of outstanding merit.

Woodward students can be proud of the fact that they can boast about such a fine organization as the Woodward Senior Band under the direction of Mr. Gilbert Curtis.

The Band has increased in size each year to its present membership of eighty. A rigid schedule is maintained by the band in its participation in many school activities. Band season, one of the longest of any organization, extends from the Pigskin Prevue to Graduation. Regular activities include football band, concert performances, assemblies, parades. Extracurricular offerings include Showcase, ensembles, dance band. Officers of the band are Hal Wood, President; Larry Brown, V. Pres.; David Lieberman, Treas.; Linda Whitenack, Sec.; Marysue Heap, Librarian.

THE WOODWARD SENIOR CHOIR

One of the largest groups in our high school is Senior Choir. The members have a great pride in their traditions and musical ability. During the year there are many performances given. The most popular ones are the Christmas and Thanksgiving programs which feature traditional and new selections. During the spring, choir also takes part in the annual "Showcase."

WOODWARD ENSEMBLE

The Ensemble is a selected group numbering thirty-three, which is chosen from the choir. The members are all juniors and seniors and are selected for their ability and appreciation of music. They perform for the various school affairs and also are quite busy with other performances around the city. The Ensemble has officers who handle many of their business affairs, they are Jim Stewart, Pres.; Jane Bollinger, Vice Pres.; Audrey C. Schroeder, Sec.; and Paul Roots, Treas.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Under the very capable leadership of Mr. Robert McSpadden, the 5th bell girls glee club and the 6th bell mixed chorus combined to make the Senior High Girls Chorus. In our recent 125 Founder's Day Assembly and the Christmas Concert the voices of the combined groups were heard.

The only requirement for "admission" is that the girl be in the 9th-12th grades and have a genuine interest in singing.

SENIOR HIGH GLEE CLUB

The Boy's Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Robert C. McSpadden, is a 2½ period class. The purpose of this course is purely for the boys' own enjoyment of singing together. The one small qualification for membership is that the boy have a desire to sing.

The group sang in the Christmas program which was presented for the student body. Each one enjoyed it very much as he contributed his small part to "Deck the Hall with Boughs of Holly."

Another activity which all enjoyed taking part in was the concert commemorating the 125th anniversary of Woodward. This was one event which will remain in the hearts of many of those who participated for a long time.

J U N I O R C H O I R

The Junior Choir, composed this year of 102 eighth and ninth grade students under the direction of Miss Rita Will, has played a vital part in Woodward activities. It was heard in such performances as the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs, The Brotherhood Assembly, the Drama Department talent night, the Woodward 125th Anniversary Program and broadcast, the 7th Grade Orientation Program, and the National Junior Honor Society initiation. It is a group characterized by good spirit, a love of music, and a genuine desire to achieve artistic and cultural development.

SENIOR HIGH PEP CLUB

One of the more active groups at Woodward is the Senior High Pep Club. You can become a new member if you are in grades 10-12 and pay fifty cents dues. The Pep Club sponsors buses to the football games and upon arrival has a reserved section. Under the direction of Miss Constance Jaichner and president, Jan Blatt; vice-president, Joanie Wasserman; secretaries, Pat Sayler and Nancy Speake; and treasurer, Karen Luikkonen. The club has had an open house in the Meridian Room, a party for its members, and several pep assemblies.

FUTURE NURSES

Future Nurses of America was organized in May of 1956, yet the club really got started in September of 1956. Although Future Nurses is new, it is one of Woodward's many active clubs.

The general aim for this club is to give its members a general idea of the requirements, and the advantages and disadvantages of nursing and its many fields. There are guest speakers, teas, tours, and many other activities in which the girls may participate, such as working at the Medical Centennial, working at hospitals, homes for the aged, children's homes, and making small gifts for hospital patients. There are many more activities, each one more fun, and linking the members a little closer with nursing.

The Club is under the fine direction of the Women's Auxiliary to the Hamilton County Medical Society. Also, Mrs. J. Kroenche, and Miss Z. Schwartz are always there in case of need.

At the beginning of the year, temporary officers were appointed who were: president, Nancye O'Hair; vice president, Judy Pellens; and secretary-treasurer, Marrianne Robbins. In January permanent officers of this year were elected. Those elected were: president Carol Blersch; vice president, Marianne Robbins; and secretary-treasurer, Barbara Savery.

The girls, on account of the number of hours put in service of the many activities when they reach 35 hours, are eligible for their pins which each member is proud to wear.

FRENCH CLUB

The wonderful world of the French is brought forth in the activities of French Club, designed to instill a knowledge of French customs and ways, which are unattainable in the classroom. Students from all four years of study are invited to join the Club and attend its monthly meetings.

"Un petit dejeuner" and the Christmas party are highlights of the group's fast-moving calendar of activities, climaxed by the picnic in June and annual baseball game. Guest speakers, French plays and movies, games and music are some of the many high spots at the club meetings.

Meetings are presided over by the president Keith Dimond, while Kathy Fox records the minutes. Jane Bollinger, vice-president, takes over in the president's absence and heads all social functions and committees. Jean DePoi is treasurer. Miss Faught, without whose help the Christmas party would have been impossible to present, works with Mrs. Parker and the officers to maintain French Club's high school standing.

ART LEAGUE

To help beautify the school and its surroundings is the purpose of the Art League. In the beginning of the year all students are given a chance to join; this year the membership totaled approximately 1,000 students.

Membership dues this year were used to purchase shubbery and other plants. Future plans include beautification of our founder's statue and the purchasing of pictures for the interior of the school.

The art league members strive to beautify the school and campus.

SENIOR ART CLUB

The purpose of the Art Club is to promote and encourage interest in the appreciation and understanding of the visual arts; and to assist in projects at school relating to design or painting.

Members worked on posters, costumes, stage sets, programs, signs, and decorations for the Showcase. Social activities include sketch picnics, weiner roasts, and hayrides.

The advisor is Mr. David Redferd. Officers are President, Anita Smith; Vice-President and Treasurer, Doris Edwards; Secretary, June Gusmere.

ALLEN SIRKIN ..... Treasurer
MADELINE RAIVES ..... Clerk
MR. RONALD AUG ..... Sponsor

The aim of the Dramatics Club is to create and stimulate the interest of the student body in all phases of dramatic art. The Dramatics Club meets twice a month and is open for membership to all senior high students. It is not a dues paying organization.

This year the Dramatic Club has presented "The Curious Savage" and the "Hangman's Noose." It has done also a one-act play, which was presented along with the initiation of the new Thespians at a spring assembly program. The Dramatic Club was extremely active in Showcase, as well as several assemblies this last year.

This year the Dramatic Club has become affiliated with the National Thespian Society and International Dramatics Honor Society that is non-secret and non-social. Membership in this society may be obtained through meritorious work in the activities in the dramatics field. The Thespian Society has branches in 1674 secondary schools, in the forty-eight states, District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Panama Canal Zone, Japan, Canada, French Morocco, Greece, and Okinawa.

JUNIOR HIGH DRAMATICS CLUB

This was the first official year of the Junior Drama Club. In 1956-1957 we adopted a constitution and received in return a charter. In our December meetings, we held an impressive formal Installation of new officers and initiation of new members. In January, Wilbur and his poor family showed the audience the trials and tribulations of "Wilbur Takes His Medicine" in the Friday Junior High Night.

Other participants also gave monologues, pantomimes, and readings. When Showcase time came 'round, our members participated on stage, off stage, served on committees, as well as in continuity, pony chorus, and specialty acts. We made a trip to Oxford on chartered bus to see a Shakespearean play, Macbeth, in March, and in Spring we enjoyed The Ten Commandments together. At our last meeting of the year, the senior members of our group (ninth graders) prophesied what the remainder of the group could expect in the year ahead and reminisced about the year's activities in their presentation of The Last Will and Testament. The Junior Drama Club of Woodward is looking forward to great things!

DEBATE CLUB

A new link in the ever increasing chain of Woodward's activity program was added this winter with the inauguration of Woodward's first debating team.

Mr. Charles Warman heads up this new Woodward adventure and hopes in the near future to have one of the better debate teams in the city.

Composing the debate team were David Dressler, John Nolte, and John Kauman who represented Woodward on the affirmative front while Roger Collier and Mike Minson stepped forth for the negative side.

Several practice debates were participated in by the Woodwardites, where they obtained invaluable experience.

In Woodwards only regulated competition, the district meet, the crew from Woodward turned in a six place out of a field of seven teams which included such experienced and skilled squads as Walnut Hills, St. Xavier, and Glendale.

STUDIOSI OPTIMI

Woodward's Latin Club, or Studiosi Optimi, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Rottenburger, attempts to further an interest in the Latin language and to increase an appreciation of Roman culture.

High points of interest at the monthly meetings are movies, refreshments, games, and guest speakers. Those eligible to join the club are Latin IV and III students who are asked to join at the end of the first semester.

Latin Club's capable officers are Carol Owens, president; Linda Travis, secretary; and Betsy Morris, treasurer.

WOODWARD COUNCIL ON WORLD AFFAIRS

The Woodward Council on World Affairs is a relatively new organization at Woodward. It was established in September and operates in affiliation with the Cincinnati Council on World Affairs. The purpose of the group is to promote better understanding of world affairs.

Members of the Woodward Council have enjoyed the privilege of attending the regular meetings of the Cincinnati Council on World Affairs, as well as meetings of their own group at Woodward. The programs have included speakers, films, and discussions of matters of current interest.

All interested students of the eleventh and twelfth grades were invited to join at the beginning of the year. Students of the tenth grade, who had an average of A or B in the social studies, were invited to join during the second semester.

D E R Z E I T G E S T

To obtain a better understanding of the German people and their way of life is the professed purpose of the German Club. The activities of this club are designed to promote this aim.

This year's activities started with a German exhibit and were followed up by the annual language club Christmas party. A television program given by the members of the club featuring an illustration of German life and customs received much praise.

The members of the club refer to it as "Der Zeitgest," which in English means "Spirit of the Times." Its year's activities are concluded by a German breakfast and picnic which everyone enjoys.

SENIOR HIGH Y-TEENS

The Senior High Y-Teens is an organ of the Young Women's Christian Association. The Y-Teens try to build fellowship between women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in life those ideals of personal and social living. To grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of other races, religions, and to grow in knowledge and love of God are three of Y's goals.

The Y-Teens have accomplished many things this year. Two of their officers attended the summer conference at Ohio Wesleyan for one week. The fall conference at Camp Lenmary at which we were well represented was for one weekend. A candy sale, a bake sale, the adoption of a family at Christmas and furnishing them with food, clothes, and toys, a contribution to the World Fellowship Fund, and speakers for two respective meetings were among our projects. Mrs. Bluementhal has been the able supervisor of Y-Teens this year. Officers for this year are President, Elizabeth Hackman; Vice-president, June Metzger; Recording Secretary, Judy Lewis; Corresponding Secretary, Lynne Dhonau; Treasurer, Carolyn Sullivan; Worship Chairman, Mary Beth Herbig; Program Chairman, Carolyn Clark.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, newly organized this year under the guidance of Mr. Bob Connelly, exists to foster better chess playing among Woodward students. Any one, even though he has not played chess before, may become a member. He is taught how to play by more experienced members. Most any afternoon after 3:00 p.m., one could find some members pondering over their chess boards and calculating a "Check mate." The club hopes eventually to grow enough to compete with clubs that have been longer established at other schools.

JUNIOR HIGH Y-TEENS

The Jr. Y-Teens, open to all girls in grades seven through nine, is sponsored by Mrs. Joan Northcutt and Miss Wanda Lunsford. Organized to serve their school, community, and city they take part in many activities.

Their officers are: Susan Hoeweler, President; Sherry Hailstone, vice-president; Pat Ireland, secretary; and Reggie Berg, treasurer.

Woodward's chapter of National Junior Honor Society is the first honor society for junior high in the city. It is an honor for a student to be inducted into this organization for he must meet requirements of scholarship, leadership, character, citizenship, and service. At its monthly meetings, the Honor Society has outside speakers and at Christmas a party is held. The members of this year's graduating class, from the Junior Honor Society, will leave their memory behind in the form of a book, given to the library.

With Miss Marita Levine as advisor; president, Jean Sauer; Vice President, Kathy Bollinger; Secretary, Betsy Morris; and Treasurer, Max Crigger strive to keep the high standards of the organization.

The aim of YFC is to promote spiritual growth, fellowship, and good living among Woodward students. Every other Tuesday the students meet and enjoy an hour of fun. In these meetings we have either Bible games, quizzes, religious movies, speakers, or discussions.

With the help of our sponsor, Miss Helen Hauck, YFC is led by Sylivia Clark, president; Carol Bluhm, Vice-president; Shirley Martin, secretary; Sara Clark, treasurer; Elaine Wilson, reporter; and Dick Dendler, song leader.

JUNIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club under the sponsorship of Mr. Bob Connelly, is designed to promote good citizenship and encourage a greater interest in scientific fields. Tours to industries and educational and social agencies, field trips, individuals sharing their scientific pursuits with others, are the types of activities engaged in by the members to come to a better appreciation of science and scientific endeavor. Fun while learning is the theme of all activities. Officers are Sid Liberman, president; Bucky Kipe, vice-president; Joe Farkas, secretary; and Jim Behr, treasurer.

BUSINESS EDUCATION CLUB

Business Club, now a member of the Future Business Leaders of America, has been very active this year trying to give its members a better understanding of the intricacies of business.

The club sponsors trips to industry, factories and companies. A very successful bake sale was held with the money being donated to the United Appeal.

Social activities have also been carried out, such as the Christmas and Valentine Day parties. A picnic at the end of the year is also planned.

Mr. Sunnenberg is the advisor; officers for 1956-7 are: Pat Surber, President; Gaye Goodheart, Vice President; Sally Burbank; Secretary, Carol Lodwick.

PROJECTION CREW

The purpose of the projection crew is to assist teachers in their teaching program by the use of audio and visual aids.

There are three main divisions under the faculty sponsor: the manager, crew captain, and crew members. The qualifications for each are: manager must be a senior and is chosen by the faculty sponsor on the basis of experience, dependability, and responsibility; crew captains must have two years experience on the projection crew and are chosen by faculty sponsor and manager; crew members can be any person from seventh through twelfth grades. The duties are: the manager supervises all crew captains and members; the crew captain must see that crew members know how to operate equipment properly and fulfill their responsibilities; the crew member must check to see that all equipment is out and has an operator.

The projection crew has sponsored movies which have been shown in the large auditorium. The money from such activities has paid for some of the audio-visual aids equipment.

The Future Teachers of America Club aids students interested in teaching by introducing them to the responsibilities and opportunities of the teaching profession.

President Linda Travis, vice-president Sheila Klein, secretary Nancy Ely, and treasurer Paula Nebolsky plan the year's activities which include conferences, speeches and movies. Under the direction of Miss Ruby Compton the club meets twice a month and welcomes all students interested in teaching as a career.

Any student interested in collecting stamps is welcome to join the stamp club. They meet to discuss and to trade their stamps, and to enlarge their knowledge of stamps issued throughout the world.

This club is sponsored by Mrs. Bergman. The officers chosen for this year are Graham Hall, President; Norman Ratzman, Vice-President; and Donald Paul, Secretary.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is an honorary boys club. Its principle goal is to promote leadership while serving the school and the community. Boys are chosen from the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades because of the citizenship, character, leadership, and scholarship qualities which they have.

The Key Club is unique among school organizations because it is an international club, sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. The sponsoring club, working the principle, is the guiding force behind any Key Club.

The Key Club depends upon its projects for an active program. With the help of several committees, these projects are planned and executed. The Woodward Key Club has undertaken several projects, helped on the United Appeal, a spring wash, and the underwriting of several landscaping purchases.

STAGE CREW

These boys are the unsung, unseen heroes of every production in the auditorium. From the shortest assembly to the five nights of the Showcase, these are the boys that battle the bulky mikes, the hot spotlights and the dimmers that suddenly won't work. When things go right they're never noticed. By the end of the year they're beaten but not bowed; and if they're still around next year they're back asking for more. They are the boys that make the Show that Must—Go On. They are the Stage Crew.

WE RAN, WE PASSED, WE SCORED

Woodward's football Bulldogs found the going a little rough for their third straight year in varsity football competition, as they wound up the season with a 1-8 won and lost record.

Nate Harlan, in his first year as head mentor, taking over from Ed Biles, who took over leadership of the Xavier Muskatteer freshmen, did a fine job in getting the boys into shape. As in years gone by, injuries to key players and the ability not to score when they needed the extra punch told the story.

The Blue and White opened the season on a happy note by defeating the Rockets from McNicholas, 32-6. This was the first win in twenty games for the Woodward varsity. Their last victory came in the first varsity game in which they participated with St. Xavier. They edged the Bombers by a 20-19 tally.

After this opening win against the Rockets they fell to defeat eight straight times, losing to Norwood, Elder, Withrow, Hughes, Walnut Hills, Taft, Central, and Western Hills in that order.

Key players, such as Paul Brill, Larry Mason, co-captains Ernie Leslie and Pete Elliot, Ray McGrath and others were stunned by the injury bug. Their loss to the team made a big difference in the scores of the various games.

Many of the players played throughout the course of the year with injuries that would have stopped many players completely, barring them from any further play. This characterized the spirit of Nate Harlan's boys. This everlasting spirit never stopped until the final whistle of the West Hi game had blown.

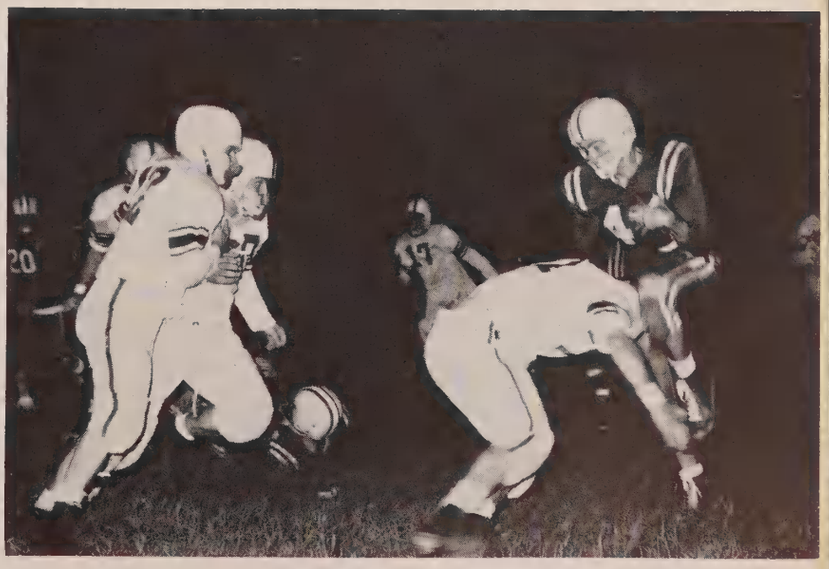
Paul Brill was the team's leading scorer with three touchdowns to his credit. Earl Poffenberger, who alternated between quarterback and halfback, had a touchdown and seven extra points to his credit.

Coach Harlan had this to say about the team: "With one or two good quarters a game, we would have won five or six ball games. The younger members of the team are going to be a big help next year, since we will have twenty returning lettermen. With all of these boys coming back, plus some of the reserve and junior high team advancing up, I see no reason why we should not do better than we did last season. They'd better win or it's going to be a mighty rough year ahead."

Varsity letter winners were announced by Coach Harlan. Gene Buerlein, Bob Bryant, Dave Elliot, Rich Grant, Mike Jacocks, Jim Lang, Ernie Leslie, Larry Mason, Ray McGrath, Todd Reinschmidt, and Fred Yauch numbered among the seniors who won letters while Don Anderson, Paul Brill, Max Cohen, Bob Emrich, Bob Hoshaw, Herb Koffler, Don Kroner, Gene McGuire, Kent Miller, Dale Norris, Earl Poffenberger, Bathel Rasner, Walt Rubin, Barry Schwart, and Myron Wayne brought up the junior contingent of this elite group. Sophomores who won letters were Dan Carpenter, Steve Clause, and Larry Cornett.

Defensive tiger Don Anderson brings West Hi's Wayne Striebig to a jarring halt during Woodward's first Public High School League encounter, the Pigskin Preview.

A McNicholas back is brought to a stop in the Bulldogs' first game of the year, which ended in a Woodward victory, 32-6. Larry Mason and Mike Jacocks rush in to assist Don Anderson who is about to upend the runner.



RESERVE FOOTBALL

Woodward's reserve football team won its initial contest against Central High School only to see its remaining six contests become Bulldog fatalities.

The team was stripped of most of its top players to provide depth for the varsity, leaving Coach Nick Weiler little material with which to work.

Constant and dependable quarterback Bob Schilling was the spark plug of the team on defensive as well as offensive work.

Under the direction of Coach Weiler, the Blue and White gridders not only learned the fundamentals, but also absorbed valuable experience during the 1956 season, which they probably wouldn't have acquired on the varsity eleven.

Such team mainstays as Tom Earlywine, Fred Labovitch, Ken Richter, Bob Schilling, Walt Erdman, and Bruce Evans aided the squad immensely.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Coach Castelli gives his strong offensive line a critical eye as it preps for the Walnut Hills game.

During the 1956 campaign the junior high football squad, under Coach Stan Castelli, posted an 1-7-1 record.

Defeat greeted the Woodward eleven in an opening game thriller which saw a strong Porter team cop top honors, 6-0.

The Baby Blue and White's only victorious note was struck against the Eagles of Walnut Hills to the tune of a 7-0, whitewashing. Failing to strike a successful note in the offensive alignment, the Bullpups salvaged what games they could by relying upon a remarkable defensive power which they demonstrated throughout the season.

Mainstays of the Bullpup eleven were Jim Butler, at quarterback, Ben Cohen, a great asset at any position, Jerry Stumpf, a defensive tiger, and Wally Bale, who provided the speed needed in the backfield.

Woodward's basketball Bulldogs wound up the 1956-57 season as its most profitable one since they entered the varsity scene four years ago with a twelve won and seven lost record.

A tie for first place in the Public High School League with a 10-2 league record is among those victories. They were deadlocked with Taft. They also won, for the second straight year, the coveted Lockland Invitational Christmas Tournament.

The Bulldogs defeated Walnut Hills, Central, Taft, and Hughes twice while they split even with Western Hills, Withrow, and Norwood. The other victory came over Reading while Elder, McNicholas, Wyoming, and Hamilton handed the Blue and White their remaining defeats.

Records were shattered all over the place in this Coach Friedman's most successful year as mentor of the Bulldogs.

Ron Reis broke Dave Hoffman's record for field goals with 121. The old record, set by "Hoffie" in 1954-55 was 97.

Hoffman broke Jim Stevens fouls-committed record by outdoing Jim by two personals. Dave posted 69 this year while Stevens had 67 in 1954-55.

Phil Matthew's 31 points in a game was broken by towering Ron Reis when he scored 32 markers against Norwood in the Lockland tourney.

Coach Friedman, ably assisted by Mr. Freese and Mr. Weiler, rounded out a well-balanced team that surprised many a person in this area. Captain Jay Galbraith and Dick Stobel were at forwards, while Ron Reis started at center and Dave Hoffman and Brian Hersch were at guards.

The bench strength was very valuable to the team at many times. Leading the replacements were Dick Willins, Bob Laurie, Dave Elliot, Paul Ringhand, Dale Norris, Larry Cornett, and Larry Phillips.

This team definitely put Woodward "on the map" as a spot of power in future years.

Coach Ollie Freese's reserve basketball team didn't fare as well as the rest of their basketball relations at Woodward this year, as they emerged from the season's schedule sporting a 6-10 record.

The Bulldog reservists missed the services of their towering center Larry Cornett who was lost via the varsity route.

The Bulldogs looked as if they had really ignited the winning fuse as they helped themselves to three victories in their first four encounters. However, the fuse didn't stay lit for long as the Blue and White found themselves in the middle of a slump which was not to cease plaguing them until the end of the season. The reserve five brought home three wins in their last twelve outings.

Coach Freese expressed, with confidence, that his basketeers would form the nucleus of the varsity string next year.

Leading the reservists were Mel Rice, Teddy Mayer, and Dave DeBord. Also contributing their talents were Walt Erdman, Richard Roots, Jerry Saxton, and Bill Randolph.

JUNIOR HIGH TEAM

Woodward's junior high basketball team posted one of its finest records in its four year stay at the home of the Blue and White. At one time during the season the Bullpups presented itself as the hottest quintet on a city court by smashing out eight straight wins.

The record of the Bullpups is only outweighed by their teamwork, as Coach Weiler feels this year's team's nucleous was composed of their cooperation and fighting will to win. Coach Weiler's praise for his boys is well merited and his boys raise much hope for continued success for Woodward basketball squads in the coming seasons. The ranks of the varsity and reserve teams will certainly be bolstered.

Leading most of Woodward's scoring thrusts was Jim Butler, who specialized in layups, and Ben Cohen, whose control of the pivot meant, in many cases, the difference between victory and defeat. Dave Ritter, Jerry Stumpf, and Dave Newman also showed great promise.

CROSS COUNTRY

Woodward's varsity and reserve cross country teams, under the leadership of Coach Sid Friedman, finished a hard fought and successful season in the third place berth in the Public High School League this season. In district competition, the Bulldog runners placed fourth out of thirteen schools.

The legmen will loose three runners to graduation, Jack Jentz, Bob Laurie, and Jack Kassel, but will gain an equal number from the ranks of the promising reserve squad. Sophomore sensation Jerry Saxton paced the Blue and White this year as he placed third in the district and traveled to Columbus to place a strong twenty-ninth in a field of almost one hundred and forty runners. Jack Kassel, Jack Jentz, Bob Laurie, Earl Weiskittel, and Bob Wigglesworth gave the team the bulk it needed to form a successful combination.

Paul Trefz, Bruce Oliver, Dick Hataway, and Ted Mayers were the reserve standouts as they brought their team through to a third place position.

GYM TEAM

Woodward's gymnastics squads ranked high this season when the varsity and reserve boys finished second and the junior high participants, lacking depth, placed fourth in a field of eleven.

Varsity scorers were Ralph Blackwelder, on the rings and parallel bars, Bob Baechle, on the rings, and Walt Rubin and Erv Fielden on the ropes. Jack Hardtle, Don Kattleman, and Doug Benz scored well also.

Two outstanding boys in the reserve ranks were Walt Rosenthal and Earl Poffenberger.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Melvin Russel, Woodward's hard-working varsity swimming team captured third place in the league standings, a tie for fourth in the District swim meet, and sent four individual swimmers to Columbus to compete in the state meet, in which they placed eleventh out of thirty schools.

The junior high squad, lacking depth, finished the season in the fifth place berth, while Gerry Sapadin, Chuck Klein, and Steve Levetch brought in many points. Charlie Goldsmith and Jeff Deutch also placed well.

Dave Neblett, Bill Thornton, Stan Dragul, Bill Blount and Keith Dimond led the way for the varsity tankers. Neblett, Dimond, Dragul, and Blount competed in the State Championships in which Neblett finished sixth in the 200-yard free style and Dimond placed third in the 100-yard breaststroke and fourth in the 150-yard individual medley.

Woodward set a district 400-yard free style record with the team composed of Thornton, Neblett, Dragul, and Dimond with a time of 3:56.5. Several individual records were also captured.

TENNIS TEAM

COACH STAN CASTELLI

Woodward's tennis team, under the tutelage of Coach Stan Castelli, started the season off with a win and a loss. Their season debut saw the Blue and White get snowed under as they bowed to Walnut Hills, 5-0. They evened matters in their second encounter when they downed powerful Western Hills.

The netmens' excellent form and style stands as testimony to Coach Castilli's fine job of coaching.

Returning lettermen this year were Brian Hersch, Jack Kassel, and Bill Fogleman. These boys were part of the spark that was evident in team play this year.

Brian Hersch ranks as number one in singles while Jack Kassel holds down the second ranks and Bill Fogleman, the third position. Doubles teams are composed of Stan Gurian, Jerry Itkoff and Mike Dickter-Stan Pollins.

Other boys adding to the team's depth and reserve strength were Henry Blohm, Barry Follmer, John Hill, Tom Neuman, Larry Rosen, Bruce Evans, and Pete Anderson. These boys saws limited action late in the season.

B A S E B A L L

Coach Bob Von Holle's baseball team launched their 1957 season with their hearts set on having their most successful season in four years of varsity play.

Ten seniors, eight juniors, and ten sophomores compose the twenty-eight man squad. The reason for so many players is that Coach Van Holle experimented with his players at different times during the season. According to P.H.S.L. rules no team can dress over twenty players for a game.

Coach Von Holle's infield was made up of Hank Goertemiller, at first base, with Bill Lucy at second, Jay Galbraith at shortstop, and Earl Poffenberger at the "hot corner."

Six men battled it out for outfield positions with such stars as Steve Clause, Dave Hoffman, Ray McGrath, Larry Phillips, Tom Wertheimer, and Dick Willins fighting for places.

Bob Shilling and Carlos Price shared the catching assignment while Dale Norris, Herb Reisenfeld, Tom Chambers, Larry Cornett, and Dick Willins shared pitching honors.

TRACK

COACHES MR. OLLIE FREEZE AND MR. SID FRIEDMAN

Prior to the outset of their 1957 season, the Woodward track team was undergoing changes as Coach Ollie Freese and Assistant Coach Sid Friedman recruited candidates for the new edition which hoped to improve on the Bulldog's previous cinder encounters.

Coach Freese drew a rough schedule for his cindermen since they meet many highly ranked teams. With only a few returning lettermen to be found, Coach Freese had to rely heavily on his corp of sophomores and juniors, who proved to be a tallented group of boys.

Forming the nucleus of this year's squad were sprinters Ron Jordan, Paul Brill, Walt Rubin, and Todd Reinschmidt. Weight men Barry Schwartz, Richard Grant, Max Cohen, and Jim Reinschmidt also aided the team immensly. Further power was gained through distance men Jerry Saxton, Earl Wieskittle, and Bob Laurie plus hurdlers Ivan Rothstein and Bob Baechle.

Coach Nate Harlan's varsity golf team featured a powerful reserve section this year, composed of sophomores and juniors who will return next year.

The Bulldog linksmen found the range with such team mainstays as Jerry Klein, Dick Strobel, Don Flory, and Keith Dimond. Neil Griffith, Bob Emerich, Don Fruectemeyer, George Sanders, and Dave Anson were some of the many participants who made the fight for a steady team position a battle royal.

Woodward will lose only two returning lettermen via the graduation route when Don Flory and Jerry Klein pass on to college. Although this is a certain loss, the Blue and White will not suffer next year because team strength will grow with the power of many experienced sophomores and juniors, not to mention some of the promising freshmen. Experience should push next year's squad up to the championship.

THE "W" CLUB

"The "W" Club is an honorary athletic club at Woodward for those who have done well in both athletic and scholastic fields.

In order to be considered for admission, each student must have earned one varsity letter and have a scholastic average of 2.1. This average must be maintained for failures in academic subjects may result in explusion from the organization.

Applicants to the "W" Club must be recommended by their instructors. Two unfavorable reports are sufficient to exclude one from membership.

The Annual Soprts Banquet held each spring is the occasion used to announce new members. Senior boys who have just received a varsity letter have their induction ceremony earlier in the year.

The Girls' Athletic Association spent another busy year trying to interest the feminine section of the student body in its varied sports activities, and it succeeded to a high degree. More girls participated in the program this year than in any previous year. Team sports, individual sports, and the specialized clubs of dance and swimming really came to life this year with the great show of inthusiasm from the girls.

Field hockey, the most rugged sport offered in our program, gains more in popularity each year. Because it is an outdoor game requiring almost constant running up and down a large field, it is played from September to mid-November in the cool fall air. Our teams made an impressive showing at hockey playday. The season was brought to a successful close when our honor team defeated Hughes in a challenge match on our fields.

Basketball is just as popular among the girls as it is among the boys. Referee's whistles blew loudly, and girls screamed and shouted as the five teams competed for first place in the intramural tournament. Although our teams were defeated in the city wide playday, we rated high as usual with a fine display of sportsmanship.

BASKETBALL

A R C H E R Y

The girls were busy on the archery range both in the fall and in the spring. Arrows flew gracefully through the air as the girls learned how to hit the target, and faces broke out in broad smiles as bulls-eyes were scored by the archers. We all discovered one important thing—it's not as easy as it looks!

Volleyball once again took first place in popularity among the sports offered in our program, with over seventy five enthusiastic girls playing expert ball in the bitter struggle to win the championship. The honor team challenged and defeated the women faculty in a game full of fun and thrills.

VOLLEYBALL

Comes the beautiful spring weather and the eagerness to get outdoors, and it's softball time again. Voices shouting "Strike two," and "Ball four" can be heard on the diamonds throughout April and May. And who said girls are the weaker sex? Did you ever see some of those homeruns the gals can hit?

POLYWOGS

Pollywogs, the synchronized swimming club, is for high school girls. Students may become members by trying out each fall. The group spends the fall and winter in learning stunts and stroke variations and in the spring they start putting together the routines for their annual show. The members of the club do the work on the show writing the script, routines, and gathering up the props.

This year the group hit an all time high in membership by starting out the year with 50 members.

Any student participating in two water shows receives the Pollywog emblem.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

Senior high girls who qualified through tests of grace, rhythm, and poise, are eligible for membership in one of the most active groups at school, the Modern Dance Club.

Under the leadership of president Yvonne Middleton and secretary-treasurer Carole Freudenberg and the guidance of Mrs. Marianne Kokkinakis and Mrs. James Kroenke, the Modern Dancers participated in the Showcase, Dance Symposium, and the Arbor Day assembly. For participation in the city-wide Symposium and the school's Showcase the girls were coached by Mrs. Bruce Thomas. The dance for the Arbor Day assembly was planned and produced by the girls themselves.

After seeing one of their performances you will agree that the talents of these girls are very well developed.

JUNIOR GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSN.

The Junior High G.A.A. was organized to stimulate interest in girls activities, to develop sportsmanship, and to offer wholesome activities. All girls in grades seven, eight, and nine are automatically eligible but an active member is one who participates in one or more G.A.A. activities.

Soccer, Archery, Basketball, Swimming, Volleyball, Softball, Track, and Badminton are some of the sports offered. Several city wide sports days are held throughout the year in which the girls participate.

This year for the first time awards will be given out to girls having the required number of points. Nine points are needed for a chevron and 18 points for a letter.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Darlene Kroenke and officers Lynne Calvin, Mary Robinson, Judy DeBord, and Kay Jenkins this years' Junior High G.A.A. had many varied activities.

NOW, CHILDREN!!!!

"OUR FATHER, WE THANK THEE . . ."

ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE

YES, SCHOOL WAS SERIOUS BUSINESS IN THE OLD DAYS.

EVERYBODY'S IN THIS ACT!

YOU MEAN—I PASSED THAT TEST YOU GAVE?!

OUT WITH THE OLD; IN WITH THE NEW (OFFICERS, THAT IS!)

"GIVE ME YOUR TIRED, YOUR POOR, YOUR HUDDLED MASSES . . . "

FOOD!!!! NOW LET'S SEE, WHAT DO I WANT . . .

. . . THE PLAY'S THE THING

WE'RE ALL SMILES! THE SHOW'S OVER!
